ADVISOR'S GUIDE FOR PLANNED GIVING

Gifts from Wills and Trusts:

When making a charitable gift to a nonprofit organization, it is vital the legal name of the charity, city and other identifying details be used. To name The National Hemophilia Foundation in your will or trust please use the following suggested language:

Residual Bequest Language —

A residual bequest comes to us after your estate expenses and specific bequests are paid.

I give and devise to The National Hemophilia Foundation (Tax ID #: 13-5641857), located in New York, NY, all (or state a percentage) of the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, both real and personal, to be used for its general support (or for the support of a specific fund or program).

Specific Bequest Language —

Naming The National Hemophilia Foundation as a beneficiary of a specific amount from your estate is easy.

I give and devise to The National Hemophilia Foundation (Tax ID #: 13-5641857), located in New York, NY, the sum of $ (or asset) to be used for its general support (or for the support of a specific fund or program).

Contingent Bequest Language —

The National Hemophilia Foundation can be named as a contingent beneficiary in your will or personal trust if one or more of your specific bequests cannot be fulfilled.

If (insert name) is not living at the time of my demise, I give and devise to The National Hemophilia Foundation (Tax ID #: 13-5641857), located in New York, NY, the sum of $ (or all or a percentage of the residue of my estate) to be used for its general support (or for the support of a specific fund or program).
